
SPARTAN SPORTS WEEKLY

Lady Spartans Basketball | PC: Hunter Yancey @itsihunter

Lady Spartan Basketball STARTS NOW

This Friday, the Lady Spartans will take the floor for the first game of the last season in the Stan Kirby Gymnasium. Coach Pratt is hoping to make it through all 22 games this year keeping her team healthy and without having to pause due to COVID-19. Coach Pratt is looking forward to playing Harding and River Valley, as well as Shelby, which will be their toughest matchup of the season. Friday, JV will start at 6PM followed by Varsity at roughly 7PM for their game against Fairbanks.

Covered by Student Writer: Hunter Yancey

Boys Basketball: T-1 Week

A week after the start of the girls season marks the start of the boys. The boys team will tip-off Wednesday, away, against Northmor. Coach Snively says the team, as they do every year, is going for a 22-0 record taking the season one game at a time. This year marks Snively's 25th year as a coach and he is also looking forward to the county rival matchups this season.

Covered by Student Writer: Hunter Yancey

Swim Is Just a Few Weeks Away

December 10th, that is the date of the swim team's first meet against Buckeye Valley. The meet will take place in the pool at the Delaware YMCA location. The very next day, Saturday the 11th, the team will host their first home meet of the season at the Marion YMCA.

Covered by Student Writer: Hunter Yancey

Wrestling Scrimmage First

A week from Friday the Wrestling team will travel to Edison High School for their first scrimmage of the season, then the John Brown Memorial Tournament on December 4th. The wrestling team is hoping for big results this season after 5 wrestlers qualified for state last year in the 2020 season, with a strong senior class and strong supports from the other classes as well.

Spartans Basketball | PC: Hunter Yancey @itsihunter

Covered by Student Writer: Hunter Yancey

Bowling Starts At Home

The Bowling team will start Monday, at home against Highland. Pleasant's home alley is located at Cooper's Bowl in Marion. After a great finish to their last season, the team is hoping to match their past results and possibly even top them.

Covered by Student Writer: Hunter Yancey

Upcoming Varsity Schedule

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Girls Basketball					VS Fairbanks	